Extended essay - Reflection and progress form

Student: This form is to be completed by you and your supervisor during the progress and completion of the extended essay. It records your progress through the extended essay process and includes your reflective statement addressing your extended essay experience. You must undertake three formal reflection sessions with your supervisor: The first formal reflection session should focus on your initial ideas and how you plan to undertake your research; the interim reflection session takes place once a significant amount of your research has been completed, and the final session will be in the form of a viva voce, once you have completed and handed in your extended essay. This document acts as a record in supporting the authenticity of your work. Following the viva voce, you write a reflective statement of no more than 500 words., which must be included on the RPF.

The completion of this form is a mandatory requirement of the extended essay. It must be submitted together with the completed essay. The reflective statement will then be assessed under Criterion E. Students and supervisors should be aware that a mark of 0 will be awarded by the examiner for criterion E if the RPF is blank or the reflective statement is written in a language other than that of the accompanying essay.

Supervisor: You must have three reflection sessions with each student, one early in the process, an interim meeting and then the final viva voce. Other check-in sessions are permitted but do not need to be recorded on this sheet. After each reflection session you must record the month that the reflection session took place, the student's year of DP study at that time and initial the form.
By submitting this student work for assessment, you are taking responsibility for its authenticity. No piece of student work should be uploaded/submitted to the e-Coursework system if its authenticity is in doubt.

Reflective statement

(No more than 500 words, written in the same language as the accompanying extended essay)

I initially had a strong interest in the Cold war and Vietnam War, and wad planning to look into Soviet support and backing for North Vietnam. However, I found research material for this difficult to come by so I decided to look into the tactics of the North Vietnamese. I then realised that that make be too broad so I narrowed it down to considering the significance of the Tet Offensive in the defeat of the USA. My primary and secondary sources will include various academic journals, books, government reports and newspaper articles.
