Assessment details
Criterion:	Mark awarded:	Commentary: (Incorporating wording from the assessment criteria)
A: Framework for the essay [Maximum possible mark: 6]	6	The research question is relevant to the topic of investigation, clear and focused in relation to the scope of the essay (5 – 6). The research methods are suitable for the research question and are explained and applied effectively (5 – 6). Although font use is inconsistent, structural conventions used in the essay effectively support the communication of the research (5 – 6).
B: Knowledge and understanding [Maximum possible mark: 6]	5	Relevant research is used to establish knowledge of the subject matter (5 – 6). Some relevant terminology is used accurately with some errors (e.g. reliability, Hawthorne effect, internal validity). (3 – 4). Relevant concepts are explained and used effectively, despite some errors – e.g. regression analysis does not determine causalit. (5 – 6)
C: Analysis and line of argument [Maximum possible mark: 6]	6	Analysis in the essay is effective and consistently produces relevant findings. (5 – 6) A clear, sustained line of argument links the research question, research findings and conclusions (5 – 6).
D: Discussion and evaluation [Maximum possible mark: 8]	4	The essay has a very limited discussion. The conclusion is an analysis of the findings and a repetition of key points. (3 – 4) There is limited evalutation of the research. Key points like the value of the scales that are used are mostly missing; superficial points are made about generalizability. (3 – 4)
E: Reflection [Maximum possible mark: 4]	3	The reflection is partially evaluative and includes specific examples, but the evaluation could be more explicit. (3)

		The reflection often shows evidence of student's growth and transfer of learning. Examples could be more explicit as to what was learned. (3)
Total marks awarded	24/30
Holistic comment on the essay:	The essay is well-focused on the question. However, less research could have been described so that more discussion and evaluation of the question could have been developed within the 4000 word limit.
